PREAMBLE—

According to the above Order, minimum marks for a pass in the Treasury Head Accountant's Examination are 40 per cent in each paper and 45 per cent in the aggregate As the higher percentage fixed for the aggregate marks operates as a hardship in several cases, it is considered necessary to modify it.

Government direct that the condition that a candidate should have obtained 45 per cent of the marks in the aggregate for a pass in the Treasury Head Accountant's Examination be removed.

2. As there were heavy failures in January 1963 examination, the Public Service Commission is authorised to conduct as a special case, a second Examination this year during July or August 1963.
